Senior Reminder

Foreword

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-four, proudly present the thirty-third volume of the Senior Reminder.

Dedication

For all her help and guidance, we,
the class of 1954, sincerely dedicate our annual to Mrs. Jones.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond memory of our former classmate,
Virginia Smith.

Salutatory

Dear Parents, Faculty, and Friends:

We, the class of 1954, are glad to welcome you here as we graduate and take our places in the world. Four years ago it seemed as though this day would never come, but the years have passed swiftly and the time is here.

As we face the future, we realize now how much all of you have done for us. Our parents gave us such good advice and were always interested in our work. Our teachers were patient with us, always willing to explain the ideas that seemed difficult for us to grasp. Our friends were with us, too, ready to encourage us and to support our projects.

Each of us would like to express his sincere appreciation for the many kind things you have done for us. Because of your help and guidance we shall have fond memories of our high school days.

In the years ahead we shall be trying to live up to these ideals we found throughout high school.

I think the words of Michael Beck express our feelings well:

"This world is not so bad a world
As some would like to make it,
Though whether good, or whether bad
Depends on how we take it."

--Kathleen Widmayer

Valedictory

Tonight we, the class of 1954, are approaching graduation, the threshold of a new life.

As we look back, with fond memories, we see the years spent in Chelsea High, but now we must enter into another phase of living. Some of us will choose college for study in a specific field, while others will enter into vocations of their choice. In either of these undertakings, we shall strive for the betterment of the world.

Whatever our selections of occupations, the encouragement and understanding given by our parents, the guidance of our teachers, and the help of the school board and friends will prove to be of value to us in future years. These things will always be remembered. Each and everyone in the class extends his thanks to you who have assisted us in our projects.

As we say good-by, we have but one thought--the hope to live up to your expectations.

--Beverly Smith

Class History

In September, 1950, fifty-seven freshmen began to take "An Old Fashion Walk." Our chaperons were Miss Betley and Mr. Starks; our escorts, Sandra Baldwin, Janet Widmayer, Doris Haist, and Kathleen Widmayer. Cynthia Paul, Katherine Merkel, and Janette Otte represented us in Student Council. Our most important events were our stand at the Community Fair, return party for the sophomores, a pep meeting and our camping trip held at Cedar Lake with the Dearborn ninth grade.

Fifty-seven sophomores "Bursting with talk," continued their walk accompanied by Mr. Smith and Mr. Magiera. Leading the way were Donald Umstead, Helen Eiseman, Doris Weinberg, and Duane Satterthwaite. We were represented on the Student Council by Janette Otte, Jeanette Bertke, and Harold Owings. Our main activities were our stand at the fair, float in the parade, freshman-sophomore party, and the ordering our class rings. Our sophomore year ended with sad hearts due to the loss of a classmate Virginia Smith, who died May 28, 1952.

During our junior year a "tale could be told" of the receiving of our class rings, selling of Christmas cards, the annual junior supper, and the success of our junior play "Campus Quarantine," under the direction of Mrs. Frank. The Big Top was the theme chosen for the junior-senior reception and minuet. Our school marms were Miss Shell and Mrs. Yost and our cabinet consisted of Kathleen Widmayer, Duane Satterthwaite, Beverly Smith, and Katherine Merkel. Our representatives were Harold Owings, Sandra Baldwin, and Lynn Noah. On June 3, 1953, Janet Widmayer and Duane Satterthwaite were presented with the American Legion Award.

The fourth and last mile of our "Old Fashioned Walk" began with the selling of magazine subscriptions, followed by the senior play, "Crazy But Cute" under the direction of Mr. Robert DeMars. Our greatest money making project was our senior stand under the management of Douglas Kolb and Katherine Merkel. Janet Widmayer was chosen for the D.A.R. award. Doris Haist who had been elected the preceding May for Vice-President represented us in student council along with Judie Doe, Lynn Noah, and Dave Atkinson. Our class officers were Duane Satterthwaite, Lloyd Grau, Judy Davisson, and Helen Eiseman, our advisors, Mrs. Jones and Mr. Chandler.

On June first we were rewarded with our senior trip, a four day cruise which took us to Chicago, the Soo locks and Mackinac Island.

On June ninth, forty-nine Seniors ended their "Old Fashion Walk" with commencement exercises.

Class Will

We, the class of 1954, who will soon pass through the doors of dear old Chelsea High for the last time realize that there will be a great catastrophe next year if we do not bestow upon the remaining student body some of our great talents and capabilities. So all being of unquestionably sound mind and body, we make this, our last will and testament, revoking all others made heretofore and henceforward.

To the faculty and to the parents we give appreciation and thanks for helping make our class a success.

To our advisors Mrs. Jones and Mr. Chandler we give a sincere vote of thanks for their help and guidance through the past year.

To the Juniors we bestow our good times.

To the Sophomores we give the mared up desks which have been handed down to us.

To the Freshmen we leave our long road to graduation.

David Atkinson leaves his tremendous collection of cars to Ralph Owings.

Sandra Baldwin wills her gift of gab upon Sally Bauer.

Rose Ann Ball bestows her warped sense of humor to Loren Keezer.

Don Bauer bequeaths upon Mr. DeMars his new shiny car.

Jim Bauer gives his surplus pep and energy to Priscilla Neal.

Mary Bauer leaves her shyness to Rose Ann Hankerd.

Bob Bertke wills his apple polisher to the future varsity basketball squad.

Jeanette Bertke bestows upon Carol Atkins her surplus men.

Dolores Buehler willingly leaves her place in driver training to Dave Fisher.

Walt Beuerle bequeaths his out of town dates to anyone who feels he can keep them.

Judy Davisson gives her constant giggling to Bob Keezer.

Judie Doe leaves her quiet disposition to Lee Matthews.

Ron Duce wills his becoming hair cut to Jim McLaughlin.

Helen Eiseman bestows her freckles upon Jackie Hibbs.

Dave Elkin leaves his manly build to Neil Buehler.

George Gilligan bequeaths his long legs to Llewellyn Lehman.

Lloyd Grau wills his troubles with girls to Kenny Halst.

John Harook gives a proportion of his height to Bruce Hoffman.

Doris Halst leaves her large selection of vocabulary to Mr. Knutson.

Rose Ann Hoffman bestows her unfriendly attitude toward boys to Monica Smith.

Merritt Honbaum bequeaths his easy going disposition to Arlene Paxton.

Doug Kolb wills his ability to be heard to Glen Weir.

Jerry Lesser leaves his technique of getting out of class recitation to Reuben Lesser.

Arlene Loeffler bestows her art of blushing easily upon Edson Whitaker.

Dave Luick bequeaths the motor of his car to Tom Eisele.

Shirley Marsh leaves her office position to Willadean Gullett.

Clyde Myers bestows his ability of sticking to one girl to Bob White.

Kathy Merkel leaves her lady like disposition to Shirley Barth.

Lynn Noah bequeaths upon Linda Mayer his ability to get kicked out of class.

Janette Otte wills her capability to tell jokes to Sharon Dancer.

Harold Owings leaves his red hair to Denny Schumm.

Cynthia Paul bestows her enthusiastic ways to Susie White.

Lorraine Paxton wills her generous helping hand to Geneva O'Dell.

Don Proctor leaves his Evenings in Paris to Orson Beeman.

Marjorie Robards bequeaths her ability to stick up for her rights in class to Ruth Ann Stapish.

Doris Rothman leaves her privilege of riding around in a mercury to anyone who can talk her out of it.

Don Rowe bestows upon Fritz Wagner his inferiority complex.

Duane Satterthwaite wills his home-spun humor to Bud Ringe.

Don Schneider bequeaths his good manners to Neil Fahrner.

Bev Smith leaves her good marks to anyone who has the ambition to work for them.

Jane Smith bestows her hair cut upon Sally Vogel.

Mary Kay Stapish wills her good times in class to Alice Wenk.

Mary Ann Titus imparts her ability to talk in study hall to Connie Steinbach.

Don Umstead wills his temper to Audrey Haab.

Leah Wahl leaves her daily bus ride to Don Mshar.

Doris Weinberg bestows her job as central treasurer to one of next year's seniors.

Janet Widmayer gladly leaves her nick-name "Pee Wee" to someone who would like the privilege.

Katy Widmayer wills her nick-name "turtle" to anyone that's speedy enough to keep up with it.

Virginia Young leaves her bashfulness to Mary Ann Klink.

WE, the undersigned, being the owners of sound minds and bodies fully acknowledge our recognition of each clause herein stated:

Class Prophecy

David Atkinson now owns a prosperous used car lot with the slogan "For the Car Without a Future, See Dave."

Sandra Baldwin and Jane Smith are now touring the country giving lectures on the art of "Talking Fast and Saying Nothing."

Rose Ann Ball seems to be the only one who has taken to teaching history.

Mary, Jim, and Donnie Bauer have a business of their own now, it's called the Three Floor Store of Bauer, Bauer, and Bauer.

Bob Bertke seems to be getting a little gray. Maybe his Admiral's rank in the navy is too much for him to handle.

Jeanette Bertke doesn't seem to be the least bit gray though. I'll bet it's because her hubby sells Tintair.

We see that they are building a new addition to Delores Buehler's nursing school over on Lincoln Street.

It seems that Walt Beuerle is doing quite fine in his little business. Get a load of that slogan, "Better Bourbon by Beuerle."

Judy Davisson really seems to have her hands full trying to raise her family and hold her position at the Spring Plant as secretary to her father.

Judy Doe is now the editor of the Detroit Times.

Ron Ducey has won an award for handing out the most tickets on the State Police force for 1974.

Helen Eiseman is now the first woman president of the United States. By the way, she's still a Republican.

Dave Elkin is now the champion weight lifter of the world. Good old Dave, we knew he could do it.

Don Foster has bought himself a business. Instead of being Wahl & Foor, it is now Wahl & Foster.

George Gilligan seems to be doing a wonderful job of managing the Ann Arbor Korger Store. He has abolished the use of hold-up men to scare the hired help.

Lloyd Grau, our future farmer of America, is now a farmer of America. And a prosperous one too.

Doris Haist, the fashion girl of America, now works for Power's Models of Hollywood.

Rose Ann Hoffman is still spending her summers in Toledo. We sometimes wonder what the big attraction is there.

John Harook has just won another trophy for small boat racing in the English Channel.

Merritt Honbaum received a gold cup for having sold more Pontiacs from his dealership in the past four years than any other small town dealer.

Doug Kolb advertises a thorough eye examination for the small fee of $10.00. Maybe that's how he got that Cadillac.

Jerry Lesser is an even better farmer than he used to be. He now owns a ranch in Wyoming.

Arlene Loeffler has been librarian for the Chelsea Public Library for the past thirteen years. It must be she likes her job.

Dave Luick stated to the Detroit News yesterday that he enjoys his present position very much and wishes to run for senator again next year.

Shirley Marsh is president of her own company. Her slogan is real great, "Better Marshes by Marsh."

As I walked by Madam Katherine's shop, I noticed her very eye-catching sign, Fine Things for That Lady Friend. I always knew Katherine Merkel would be prosperous.

Well what do you know! Clyde Mayers finally bought out Gaunts' Gladiolus Farm, lock, stock, and glads.

Lynn Noah's Chinese restaurant is serving chop suey and rice patties on the house for the visiting Democratic Senators.

Janett Otte is still operating those cabins on North Territorial Road. I'll just bet she's rich by now.

That sign that hangs on Harold's door certainly is distinctive: Harold Owings, President Sinclair Oil Company, Michigan Branch.

Cynthia Paul, exclusive dress designer, recently got a commission to go to Paris to study the new Parisian gowns.

Who is that on that tractor? Why it's Lorraine Paxton doing her spring plowing just like she did back in '54."

Don Proctor, the best dairy judge of 1953, is now president of the National Dairy Judging Association.

Margie Robards now holds the secretary's record for number of days spent sitting on the boss's lap.

Doris Rothman's sewing center seems to be the busiest place in town.

Don Rowe has the best record of any FBI man in Washington. We wonder if he is going to take over J. Edgar Hoover's position.

Is that Duane Satterthwaite we see out there plowing with that 1975 Oliver Tractor. We always knew he'd be a farmer.

Don Schneider is now coach of Southern California. He certainly is soaking up a lot of sun.

Bev Smith is now having her troubles with high school students as she has just taken over the position as math teacher at Chelsea H.

Mary Kay Stapish hasn't lost her notorious giggle.

Mary Ann Titus is now assistant director of nurses in Delores Buehler's nursing school.

We never thought that our own Donald Umstead, or Bumpy by nickname, would ever be winner of the Indianapolis 500.

Janet Widmayer is now National Representative of Michigan 4H.

Kathleen Widmayer is still living up to her nickname, Turtle.

Doris Weinberg has been out of college for quite some time now. We hear that she has her own Physical Therapy Clinic in the back of her father's dairy.

Leah Wahl has just been voted Miss Sinclair Oil of 1975.

Virginia Young has lived up to her name for the past 20 years. She is still as young as ever.

Giftatory

We, the class of 54, constant labor do deplore, these little gifts we give with glee, please don't take them too seriously.

To MR. CONKLIN a friend of us all,
We present this autographed baseball.

To MR. KNUTSON we give this file;
To teach us office procedure took quite awhile.

Because in band MR. SHROYER was good,
We give him this conductor's stick of the very best wood.

To aid MISS SPEERMAN in catching her man,
We give her this fish-hook and bait in a can.

We give these treats of ice cream cones,
To our class advisors, MR. CHANDLER and MRS. JONES.

Because the basketball games excited her so,
We give MRS. BALSTEAD this pepto-bismal.

To brighten up their office hours,
We give MRS. CLAIRE and MRS. BIRCH these bouquets of flowers.

Because MR. DEMARS had to travel so far,
We give this gasoline to put in his car.

The scotch to MR. CAMERON we give in a cup,
So like his ancestors he can really live it up.

To MISS FOX we give this great big club,
To tame the study hall monsters she so dearly loved.

MR. MONROE, these lifesavers to you we give,
In case of a chemistry explosion you still can live.

To MR. MUSSER we give this hammer,
To remind him of the shop boys that made so much clamor.

To MR. GRIFFIN we give this bell for warning,
So we can hear him when he visits classes in the morning.

To MR. DAVIS we give this auto-part,
So his big De-Soto will always start.

To MR. SMITH we give this bright bow tie,
So everyone will notice him when he walks by.

To MR. MAGIERA we give this bubble gum,
To fix your flat tires, you'll need quite a sum.

To MRS. McCLUMPHA we give this sugar so sweet,
Because a finer librarian's hard to beat.

Because to know her is such a pleasure,
We give MRS. HELBIG this little treasure.

To MR. PIERSON we give this piano piece,
We hope his music will never cease.

To add to MRS. CONKLIN'S jewelry selection,
We give her this bracelet for her collection.

To DAVE we give this box of junk,
To add to the collection he has in his trunk.

Because she's not so very tall,
We give this ladder to ROSE ANN BALL.

This miniature pump we give to DON BAUER,
For at the gas-station he put in many an hour.

We've heard that Mars is JIM'S great goal,
To power his rocket ship--this atomic coal.

MARY, we give this gift to you,
As sweet girls like you are very few.

Because she caught many men in her snare,
We give to JEANETTE these locks of their hair.

Because BOB was a star on the varsity team,
We give him this basketball in our highest esteem.

WALT BEUERLE, we give this sole to you,
As jolly souls like you are few.

To DOLORES we give this thermometer, you see,
For in the future a nurse she will be.

To a little gal who is so sweet,
We give to JUDY this box of treats.

Our smallest lass was JUDY DOE,
To make her grow, some Vigoro.

To RONNIE DUCEY go these picture frames,
To line up the pictures of his old flames.

To HELEN we give this box of Cheer,
To remind her of the cheerleading she held so dear.

Since DAVE ELKIN was good on the basketball team,
We give him a compass to stay on the beam.

To GEORGE GILLIGAN this sling-shot goes,
So if you meet up with robbers again you'll be on your toes.

To LLOYD who worked in F.F.A.,
We give to him this bundle of hay.

To DORIS HAIST goes this capital "M,"
To remind her of her many men.

Here is some salt for JOHN'S popcorn,
For without it at the Senior stand he was always forlorn.

This box of rouge to ROSIE we give,
So that up to her name she may always live.

Because of his love for a hot rod car,
To MERRITT goes this axle grease in a jar.

To DOUG the star of our class plays,
We give to him this picture of those happy days.

A future farmer as everyone knows,
To JERRY LESSER this tractor goes.

Giftatory

To ARLENE LOEFFLER we give this red rose,
It matches her blush as everyone knows.

A real car lover is DAVID LUICK,
So we give him this streamlined '54 Buick.

To SHIRLEY MARSH our youngest lass,
We give this rattle from the class.

KATHEY in basketball received many sprains,
So here is a band-aid to ease her pains.

To CLYDE whom we hear will soon be wed,
We give these recipes so he'll be well fed.

The political boy of the class was LYNN,
So we give a law book to help him win.

To JANETTE OTTE who has trapped many men,
We give her this trophy to put in her den.

To HAROLD who's already given the ring,
We give him some money for one last fling.

To help beautify LORRAINE'S sparkling eyes,
We give her these eye lashes--king size.

To DONNIE PROCTOR we give this flash light,
In case he's in Paris again on a Saturday night.

Because in basketball she was a good guard,
We give this mascot to MARJIE ROBARDS.

To DORIS this jar of hand cream goes,
So dish-pan hands won't be one of her woes.

To DON ROWE goes a big block "G,"
To remind him of his girls that filled him with glee.

To DUANE who likes to entertain folks,
We give this book of the funniest jokes.

To DON SCHNEIDER goes this little shot gun,
Because of the "dear" that kept him on the run.

Because of her desire for good marks in college,
We give to BEV. SMITH this book of knowledge.

To JANIE SMITH whose tongue does wag,
We give her this hankie to serve as a gag.

Because in classes she loved to play,
We give this yo-yo to MARY KAY.

Because she's far from being the quietest,
We give this loud drum to MARY ANN TITUS.

It would be tragic if DONNIE forgot to shave,
So we give to him, these Gillette Blue Blades.

To LEAH we give this pattern from Vogue,
Because of the things she has sewed.

Congratulations to JANET'S winning of the D.A.R.,
We present this medal in hopes she will go far.

To VIRGINIA YOUNG our quietest lass,
We give these autographs from the class.

Because in most classes her shoes were gone,
We give SANDRA this string to tie them on.

To CYNTHIA our only senior in the high school band,
We give this music because she played so grand.

Because her smile is shining and bright,
We give DORIE this Pepsodent so her teeth will always stay white.

To remind her of her ideas so bright,
We give KATY this flash bulb light.

Chelsea started the season with the return of six lettermen. Although the team had a slow start, it improved with much success. Due to injuries, which handicapped the team, some of the reserves were given a chance to play. The team ended the season 4th in the Huron League, when they won four games and lost three. The only other loss of the season was a non-league game at the start of the season to Dexter.

The team will lose 7 seniors, but will have the return of 12 lettermen and some fine reserves.

The 1953-54 cage squad shared the Huron League Championship with Dundee. This was Chelsea's second basketball championship since the Huron League was organized in 1930, the first coming in 1951.

The Bulldog squad captained by Bud Ringe, had only two seniors, Bob Bertke and Dave Elkins.

In winning 16 games and losing only two, the Bulldogs set a new Huron League and gymnasium record of 94 points, and a new season record of 1198 points.

At the close of the season, the cage squad voted Bob Bertke as the most valuable player, and Bruce Hoffman as the most improved player. This was the second year in a row that senior Bob Bertke was voted the most valuable.

The leading individual scorers were Bob White-327 points, Neil Buehler-290 points, Bruce Hoffman-238 points, and Bob Bertke-134 points.

The 1954 baseball squad had 6 returning lettermen. Second baseman Lloyd Grau and outfielder Duane Satterthwaite were the squad's only Seniors. The other lettermen were Juniors Phil Bareis, Bob White and Bruce Hoffman, who composed the Bulldog pitching staff, plus first baseman Ralph Owings. Two reserve letter winners, Roger Stevens and Glenn Weir earned the starting outfield positions. Freshman Hugh Weinberg took over as first-string catcher. Promising young outfield candidates were Jim Baxter and George Staffan. Jay Ferguson, Mike Murphy and Ed Wenk fought for infield positions.

First row: T. Nixon, J. Hibbs, E. Walker, J. Speer, B. Guest.

Second row: D. Proctor, T. Eisele, D. Elkin, B. Bertke, B. Ringe, J. Jones.

Third row: Mr. Magiera, R. Satterthwaite, B. Harris, B. Keezer, K. Pickett, J. Harook, J. Bauer, J. Bauer.

This year's track team appears to be the best-balanced team in the school's history.

Some of the outstanding returning lettermen and their specialties are: Dashes-Bill Harris and Donald Proctor; Distance-Bob Bertke, Bud Ringe, Harold Stott, and Joe Bauer; Field Events-Tom Eisele, Bud Ringe, David Elkins, and Bob Bertke.

The track boys are still handicapped because of lack of a cinder track and other facilities.

Senior Class Play

On November 20, 1953, the Senior Class presented the play, "Crazy But Cute" under the direction of Mr. DeMars.

In this three act play the action centers around a fifteen year old boy who just won't learn the amenities of a gentleman and won't behave more sociably with nice young girls. The boy's mother swings into action which involves his easy-going Dad and glamorous cousin. His mother arranges a date for him and his Dad and cousin do the same. Danny finds himself bewildered with three dates for once dance. All he wants is to be left alone to go on abalone fishing.

After a successful summer season, high-lighted by a picnic at Portage Lake, the high school band, under the direction of Mr. Shroyer, began the fall season with 45 members.

During the fall the band presented half-time shows at all home football games and boosted spirits at Milan when they followed our team to this away game. Other fall activities included marching in the community fair parade, the Halloween parade, and welcoming Santa Claus at the start of the Christmas season. The high-light of the fall activities was the participation of the Chelsea band in the University of Michigan fifth annual Band Day along with over 100 bands from the entire state of Michigan.

Other activities during the year included fund raising projects in conjunction with the Band Parents' Club. Outstanding among these were the "Womenless Wedding" farce and the Donkey Basketball game.

Concerts by the band this year were the Christmas concert, Midwinter Concert, and the annual Spring concert. A series of "exchange concerts" was initiated by the Chelsea band in the spring with Dexter and Edmondson school in Willow Run.

Take the Telephone Company, for example. Anyone who works for Michigan Bell will tell you it's everything a girl could want in a job.

First, you don't need any experience. You learn your job on the job, and earn a good salary while learning. Raises are regular and frequent. Your income is steady, you can always count on it and you get annual vacations with pay.

Another nice thing about telephone work is that you'll associate with people your own age, just out of school, too. You'll work in clean, bright, pleasant surroundings. Whether you prefer to start as a telephone operator, a teller or a clerk, you'll find opportunities for advancement.

We'd like to tell you more about these and other interesting telephone jobs. Visit us soon, won't you?
